A Message from Rev Mike Shephard

Thank you to everyone who aided the success of 'The Anvil of Doubt 'by purchasing a copy of the book. I will shortly be giving £1750 to 'Morgan's Army'. Young Morgan Riddler died, sadly, some weeks ago but other children have the same kind of aggressive cancer so the work of the charity goes on. Thank you one and all.

An Acrostic puzzle

This Man climbed a tree to see Jesus

The father of James and John

Moses's brother

Joseph's brothers went to Egypt to buy

The hill where Jesus was crucified

David played this musical instrument

This man was told to offer his son to God

This man went to heaven in a chariot of horses and fire

Job 1:1 tells us that Job was perfect and a fallen angel

The special word is: _____

Prayer before a five pound note

Lord, see this note, it frightens me.
You know its secrets, you know its history.
How heavy it is!
It scares me, for it cannot speak.
It will never tell all it hides in its creases.
It will never reveal all the struggles and efforts it represents,
All the disillusionment and slighted dignity.
It is stained with sweat and blood.
It is laden with all the weight of human toil which makes its worth.

It is heavy, heavy Lord.
It fills me with awe, it frightens me.
For it has death on its conscience.
All the poor fellows who killed themselves for it.....
To possess it for a few hours,
To have through it a little pleasure, a little joy, a little life.....
Through how many hands has it passed Lord?
And what has it done in the course of its long, silent life?

It has offered white roses to the radiant fiancée;
It has paid for the baptismal party and fed the growing baby;
It has provided bread for the family table.
Because of it there was laughter among the young and joy among the adults.
It has paid for the saving visit of the doctor.
It has bought the book that taught the youngster.
It has clothed the young girl.

But it has sent the letter breaking the engagement.
It has paid for the death of the child in its mother's womb;
It has bought the liquor that made the drunkard;
It has produced the film unfit for children,
And has recorded the indecent song.
It has broken the morals of the adolescent and made of the adult a thief.
It has paid for the weapons of the crime and for the wood of the coffin.

O Lord, I offer you this note with its joyous mysteries, its sorrowful mysteries.
I thank you for all the life and joy it has given.
I ask your forgiveness for the harm it has done.
But above all, Lord, I offer it to you as a symbol of all the labours of men, indestructible money which tomorrow will be changed into your eternal life.

Michael Quoist
